Re: Appeal No. DOJ-AP-2019-000583
Request No. 1409901
CDT:JNW

VIA: Email

Dear Emma Best:

You appealed from the action of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on your Freedom of Information Act request for access to records concerning the Rose Law Firm. I note that your appeal concerns the FBI's determination that your request is not reasonably described. Please note that this Office was closed due to a lapse in funding appropriations between December 22, 2018 and January 25, 2019, which resulted in a delay in responding to your appeal.

After carefully considering your appeal, I am affirming the FBI's action on your request. A proper FOIA request for records must reasonably describe the records sought. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)(A); see also 28 C.F.R. 16.3(b)(2018). The FBI informed you that you did not reasonably describe the subject of your request. I have determined that the FBI's response was correct. Please be advised that multiple Rose Law Firms exist, and, accordingly, the FBI is unable to discern which Rose Law Firm your request concerns.¹ Please contact the FBI directly if you can provide additional information concerning the Rose Law Firm about which you are seeking records.

Please be advised that this Office's decision was made only after a full review of this matter. Your appeal was assigned to an attorney with this Office who thoroughly reviewed and analyzed your appeal, your underlying request, and the action of the FBI in response to your request.

If you are dissatisfied with my action on your appeal, the FOIA permits you to file a lawsuit in federal district court in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B).

¹ As to File No. 190-HQ-1070836, please be advised that that FBI was unable to use this file to ascertain from which Rose Law Firm you are requesting records because it has been destroyed pursuant to the agency's record retention and disposition schedules approved by the National Archives and Records Administration.

For your information, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, Room 2510, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001; email at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769. If you have any questions regarding the action this Office has taken on your appeal, you may contact this Office's FOIA Public Liaison for your appeal. Specifically, you may speak with the undersigned agency official by calling (202) 514-3642.

Sincerely,

4/12/2019
